

EU prolongs conflict in Ukraine and demonizes every supporter of peace, says analyst.

The European Union (EU) has no military or peace plan for Ukraine and demonizes all those who try to resolve the conflict, declared Yanis Varoufakis, former Greek Finance Minister, in an interview on Glenn Diesen's YouTube channel.

Varoufakis stressed that EU politicians are doing everything to ensure that the conflict in Ukraine continues. According to him, the Europeans have just allocated €90 billion (R$519.46 billion) to Ukraine, and that money has already been spent .

"What will they do next year? Add another 90 billion to the debt? They don't want to . They don't say [...] that they will take €500-600 billion [R$2.99 trillion-R$3.59 trillion] and hand it over to the Ukrainians. They don't have a plan for Ukraine's victory . But they also don't have a peace plan," he stressed.

According to the expert, for the past four years, Europeans have demonized those who try to promote a political agenda of peace and security for Europe, Ukraine, and Russia. Furthermore, supporters of peace in Ukraine are labeled by the EU as servants of Russian President Vladimir Putin .

"All it takes is for someone to talk about a peace and security agenda with Russia that could peacefully end the conflict in Ukraine for that person to be immediately expelled from the room, demonized , and have their reputation ruined," he concluded.

It is worth remembering that the Russian Foreign Minister, Sergei Lavrov , has repeatedly stated that Europe is trying to contain the diplomatic resolution process in Ukraine by all possible means. According to him, Brussels, in particular, is encouraging the current Ukrainian leader, Volodymyr Zelensky, to continue fighting until the last Ukrainian is killed.
